

A CONVERSATION ABOUT RACISM AND HOMELESSNESS

MUSEUM OF AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORY

African Meeting House, 46 Joy Street, Beacon Hill, Boston

VALIDATED PARKING IS AVAILABLE FOR $5 IN THE LOWER LEVELS OF THE CHARLES RIVER PLAZA PARKING GARAGE AT 209 CAMBRIDGE STREET, BOSTON.

RACIAL MINORITIES EXPERIENCE HOMELESSNESS IN GREATER NUMBERS.

Join us for an important community conversation about racism and homelessness. Reception to follow.
Please RSVP at lmorrissey@center4si.com.

“ The intersection of racism and homelessness is too often overlooked and unacknowledged. Yet, until we open our eyes to it, we will never be able to end homelessness. ”

–Jeff Olivet

At Center for Social Innovation, we believe homelessness is unjust and unconscionable, and access to housing and services is a basic human right. Visit center4si.com for more information on our work to end homelessness and ensure safe, stable, affordable housing for all.

PANELISTS:

COMMISSIONER
MONICA BHAREL, MD, MPH

Massachusetts Department of Public Health

JEFF OLIVET,
CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Center for Social Innovation

MARC DONES, SENIOR ANALYST, HEALTH POLICY

Center for Social Innovation