The Permanent Supportive Housing Learning Forum: The Future of PSH

Join us for the in-person kick-off conference

Tuesday, April 9th, 9:00am – 3:30pm
Assumption University
Tsotsis Family Academic Center, 3rd Floor
500 Salisbury Street, Worcester, MA

This conference will be followed by a biweekly virtual training series from April 17th to August 28th, 10am-noon.

The Permanent Supportive Housing (PSH) Learning Forum seeks to build capacity among emerging and established housing developers to expand PSH across the Commonwealth for individuals and families experiencing chronic and long-term homelessness. Attendees will engage with and learn from government leaders, policy experts, funders, developers, and service providers about the future of PSH and how to advance the development, operation, and delivery of services for PSH.

Who should attend: Non-profit and for-profit housing developers, service providers, local funders, faith-based organization leaders, development consultants, municipal housing officials, and leadership from public housing authorities, housing trust funds, property management agencies, and community development corporations.
